Key to Kierland

The Westin Kierland Resort & Spa and Kierland Commons have partnered together to bring the exclusive Key to Kierland program to guests of The Westin Kierland! Guests can simply show their room key or Key to Kierland promo card to select Kierland Commons retailers and restaurants to take advantage of special offers and promotions, exclusively for guests of The Westin Kierland.

Located adjacent to The Westin Kierland Resort & Spa, Kierland Commons is the ultimate destination for national retail and local boutique concepts. Discover one of their many charming shops and their quaint Main Street ambiance. The Westin Kierland Resort & Spa room key unlocks the opportunity to receive exclusive discounts and offers from many of their celebrated retailers.

The Westin Kierland Resort & Spa "Be Greener" Program

The Westin Kierland Resort is well known for "Keeping the Essence of Arizona" and equally as well known for being one of the largest Resorts in Arizona. In keeping with their reputation they are honoring that essence and that responsibility with several initiatives that protect and conserve the environment and reduce their carbon footprint.

Their "Be Greener" program, launched in early 2007, was initiated to help set an example and lead the way in the hospitality industry for the State. Through programs such as energy conservation, waste reduction, water conservation, alternate transportation, staff and guest awareness, and community service projects, The Westin Kierland Resort & Spa is dedicated to preserving that essence of Arizona it is known for.

Scottish Influences at The Westin Kierland Resort & Spa

In keeping with the Resort's "Essence of Arizona" theme, the award-winning Scottish Traditions at The Westin Kierland Resort & Spa serve to pay homage to the contributions made by the Scottish immigrants to the development of Arizona's railroads, mines and towns. Guests will find themselves emerged in Scottish traditions through the Resort's "Scottish Pipes at Sunset Series," "Saturday Night Scotch Tastings," the "Scottish Golf Experience," Scottish-themed wedding ceremony package, and even the Resort's mascot "Scotty" the bagpiper.

"Scottish Pipes at Sunset Series"

The "Scottish Pipes at Sunset Series" is the original tribute to the Scottish immigrants where every evening guests and families are encouraged to gather around the fire pit at the Resort's Dreamweaver's Canyon to enjoy the haunting sounds of the Scottish Bagpipes with Michael McClanathan, a bagpiper with 40 years of experience. The Resort is well known for the "Bagpipes at Sunset" nightly performances and has been a mainstay at the Resort for several years.

“Scottish Golf Experience”

The presence of the bagpiper also serves to bring in the golfers after a great game of golf at the Kierland Golf Club, where golfers can try the “Scottish Golf Experience.” Kierland Golf Club offers Scottish kilt rentals for those golfers who would like to try golf, the “Scottish way.” Unique Johnnie Walker beverage carts, serving Johnnie Walker Blue, Johnnie Walker Gold and Johnnie Walker Green, help golfers toast to the game of golf with the perfect Scotch. Also unique to Kierland Golf Course and the Scottish influences are the Johnnie Walker Flags that represent the different labels of the Johnnie Walker Scotch Line.

“Saturday Night Scotch Tastings”

Continuing the Scottish traditions in Arizona and bagpiper influences at The Westin Kierland, the Library at the Rim Lobby Bar offers “Saturday Night Scotch Tastings” featuring Johnnie Walker Scotches. From 6:00pm to 6:45pm, Tom Turner, brand ambassador for Johnnie Walker, will showcase the Johnnie Walker family featuring Johnnie Walker Blue, Johnnie Walker Gold and Johnnie Walker Green.

Scottish-themed wedding ceremony package

The Westin Kierland Resort & Spa also offers a customized Scottish-themed wedding ceremony package, where guests can incorporate the many Scottish influences into their special day, whether it is donning traditional kilts and Scottish formalwear, having a bagpiper play during the ceremony, a toast of Johnnie Walker Scotch or even adding a game of golf the “Scottish way.”

Completing the Scottish influences at The Westin Kierland Resort & Spa is “Scotty” the bagpiper mascot. Introduced this summer, “Scotty” is quickly becoming the face of “Westin Kierland” at special events and activities all for families to enjoy during their stay.

"Replacing Luck Golf Package" at The Westin Kierland Resort & Spa

The Westin Kierland Resort and Spa is pleased to announce the "Replacing Luck Golf Package." This exclusive golf package allows guests to experience Kierland Golf, in a no-hassle approach. Comprised of five components, this package includes everything a golfer needs for the ultimate game of golf, including award-winning instruction, custom club fitting, fitness training with Fore-Max Golf Training Systems, Golfer's Massage at Agave, The Arizona Spa and unlimited golf! From the initial consultation, guests participating in the "Replacing Luck Golf Package" receive a detailed itinerary to provide them access to all five golf-specific components during their stay. Each component work hand-in-hand to provide a comprehensive approach to the game of golf.

Climate-Controlled Golf

Kierland Golf Club's is just one of a few courses in the country to showcase climate-controlled golf. This includes an enhanced outdoor driving range featuring an air-conditioned canopy system. The climate-controlled experience continues with air-conditioned golf carts. The patented system directs cool, dry air to the back of the neck and reduces the all-around temperature inside the cart.

Award-winning Instruction

Kierland's director of instruction, Mike LaBauve, brought another award to the property when Golf Digest magazine named him 2008 "America's 50 Greatest Teachers." Mike's wife, Sandy LaBauve, also an instructor at Kierland, is among the nation's top 100 teaching pros.

Kierland has been recognized as one of the most women-friendly courses in the nation, with highly qualified female instruction. Sandy LaBauve has been recognized as one of Golf for Women's "Top 50 Instructors," and was presented the "Rolex for the Love of the Game Award" from Rolex and Ladies Professional Golf Association in 2008.

FORE-MAX Golf Training Systems

A unique aspect of the golf experience at Kierland is the FORE-MAX Training System, which provides a comprehensive approach to improving driving distance and overall fitness. The exclusive program brings together traditional instruction, on-course play, fitness, training and nutrition. Award-winning golf instructor Mike LaBauve works with The Westin Kierland Resort's fitness director, Steve Heller, to create a program that blends the best of exercise physiology with top golf instruction. The result is a personalized workout program that is virtually guaranteed to increase driving distance and stamina on the course.

ProFit

As part of Kierland Golf Club's "start to finish" approach to the golf experience, we offer expert instruction by industry lauded professionals, Mike and Sandy LaBauve, our FORE-MAX Training Systems guaranteed to increase your driving distance while improving your overall fitness, and ProFit golf equipment suppliers. ProFit provides a full range of golf equipment that guests can actively try before they buy, with the guidance of a qualified instructor. Individual needs can be met on-site. For those with clubs that need a little adjusting, club re-shafting and repair are also available.

Segway Golf

Offering the latest in golf technology, The Westin Kierland Resort & Spa was the first golf resort in the country to offer the option of using Segways to maneuver around the course. Using gyroscope technology, microprocessors and electric balancing motors, the two-wheeled devices are offered to guests as an upgrade to Kierland Golf Club's air-conditioned golf cart.

Agave, The Arizona Spa

The Westin Kierland Resort announces New Partnership with Damian Vaughn and the Vaughn Center

The Westin Kierland Resort & Spa announces a new partnership with the Vaughn Center to provide spa-goers with the integrative tools needed to get "mind fit." Founded by former NFL Player, Damian Vaughn, the Vaughn Center seeks to heal, transform and realize one's true, full potential through the integration of body, mind and soul. This is the first time Damian has ventured out into a partnership program of this kind and is just another step in Agave, The Arizona Spa's focus on the overall wellness of guests through wellness programs and spa journeys.

The Vaughn Center's primary focus has always been development of the athlete's mind and body, and to those transitioning out of sports and into new career paths or retirement. The partnership with The Westin Kierland will allow the Vaughn Center to provide these techniques to spa guests to help them discover a deeper state of calm, unleash pure creativity, achieve mental clarity and establish balance with purpose in life. Vaughn Center Services at Agave Spa include Meditation CalmQuest, Primordial Sound Meditation and CalmQuest Immersion.

Guided Meditation

Guided meditation offers the opportunity to be guided by a therapist on a 25-minute journey to clear the mind and relax, while focusing on your well-being.

Well-Walk

This guided 50-minute walk will take guests on a journey through much of the surrounding Kierland community. This walk is suitable for all guests, and is an ideal add-on class to hatha yoga.

Tui'Na

Agave, The Arizona Spa is a heavenly retreat designed to rejuvenate and renew the mind, body, and spirit. Tui'Na is a unique massage and a 5,000 year-old Chinese tradition that seeks to establish a more harmonious flow of Qi and blood, allowing the body to naturally heal itself. Most diseases and disharmonies can be traced to an imbalance of yin and yang energies within the human body. The rebalancing will help alleviate painful symptoms from digestive disorders, stress, PMS and fatigue. Tui'Na uses a variety of hand techniques to stimulate acupoints, activate the flow of Qi and manipulate the soft tissues and articular relationships of the body.

New Gastropub Menu & Chef de Cuisine at Brittlebush Bar & Grill at The Westin Kierland Resort & Spa

The Westin Kierland Resort & Spa in Scottsdale, Ariz., is proud to introduce Graeme Blair as the new Managing Chef and Chef de Cuisine of Brittlebush Bar & Grill. Transitioning from Nellie Cashman's Monday Club Cafe, Chef Graeme is using his experience and passion for cooking to take the Brittlebush dining experience to new heights. His first successful endeavor has been launching the new Brittlebush Gastropub menu. In adding to the Resort's many Scottish Experiences, the Gastropub menu offers a slight Scottish influence. The culinary efforts of Chef Blair (a Scotland native) boast some of his homeland favorites with a modern twist.

Gastropub (n): British term for a public house ("pub") which specializes in high-quality food a step above the more basic "pub grub." The name "Gastropub" is a portmanteau of pub and gastronomy and was coined in 1991 when David Eyre and Mike Belben opened The Eagle Pub in Clerkenwell, London. Gastropubs are generally known for a relaxed atmosphere as well as a menu that complements an assortment of beers and wines offered.

The Westin Kierland Resort introduces specialty label beer: "Piper's Pale Ale"

As another unique element in The Westin Kierland Resort & Spa's well-known "Scottish Experiences," the Resort is proud to introduce their very own brew: "Piper's Pale Ale." Available at Brittlebush Bar & Grill as well as the Resort's Waltz & Weiser, The Saloon, guests can enjoy a glass while listening to the "Scottish Pipes at Sunset Series."

The Westin Kierland Resort & Spa Offers Perks for Dedicated Foodies

The Westin Kierland Resort & Spa's newsletter has the inside scoop on the Resort's many celebrated restaurants, and the chance to join "The Kierland Epicurean Club," a members-only program that celebrates and rewards loyal patrons, passionate "foodies" and returning guests. Delectable perks of membership include exclusive discounts, priority reservations, member Appreciation Nights and more.

The Westin Kierland offers new Epicurean Events at deseo deseo, The Westin Kierland Resort & Spa's signature restaurant, has added two new "foodie" events as part of the Kierland Epicurean Club. Every Wednesday, guests can join deseo's Master Mixologist, Gerardo "G" Mendoza for "Wednesday Muddle Drink Making." From 5:30 to 6:30pm, guests will learn the art of "Muddle Drink Making" at deseo's Muddle Bar.

whether guests have already enjoyed a Muddle Drink at deseo or looking for a new unique cocktail to call their favorite, they'll leave with a new skill to impress friends at their next cocktail party.

Join deseo on Friday and Saturday night for dinner at "Table 32." Located in the heart of deseo's lively dining room, "Table 32" seats 10 guests together for a fun "community" dining experience. Save seats at the Table for a group of friends, dinner for two or just for yourself and dine with other Epicurean Club Members, traveling Resort guests or local diners and deseo fans. Enjoy wonderful food, drink and conversation within the unique ambiance of deseo. Guests of a "Table 32" Dinner will enjoy a Prix Fixe menu with choices available in three courses, rotating weekly, for $29.

Kierland Epicurean Club Members are invited to fill the 12 best seats in the house for exclusive "Ceviche Tastings!" Every Thursday night, guests will watch deseo's expert chef personally prepare samplings of popular ceviche recipes, and enjoy a glass of champagne or wine while they learn.

deseo at The Westin Kierland Resort & Spa adds 20 new items to menu
The Westin Kierland Resort & Spa's signature restaurant deseo has introduced 20 new items to its menu. While many guest favorites including the beef tenderloin "churrasco style" and the millionaire tacos are still available, guests dining at deseo will encounter new flavors, like the jidori chicken "borracho," coconut calamari, organic chicken posole and hamachi, yuzu marmalade and sweet soy ceviche, to name a few. For those looking to have a fun night at The Rail, the best seat in the house where guests can watch chefs expertly prepare ceviche, 12 different ceviches are now available!

Sunday "Bubbles & Brunch" at Nellie Cashman's Monday Club Cafe
From 11 am to 2 pm every Sunday at Nellie's, experience The Westin Kierland's version of a champagne brunch featuring wonderful food, new items every week, and bubbles or mimosas in one of Scottsdale's most luxurious Resorts for far less than you might spend anywhere else. Enjoy delectable delicacies like house-cured white tea smoked salmon, iced shrimp, crab legs and international organic cheeses. Choose healthful options through signature Superfood offerings and a selection of fresh-tossed salads featuring seasonal and local produce.

Nellie Cashman's Monday Club Café offers unique monthly menus, highlighting cuisine from around the world
Enjoy Nellie Cashman's monthly feature menus every Friday and Saturday evening featuring cuisine from all over the world! From Scotland one month to Thailand and then the American Southwest, you are in for a trip around the world. Named for "The Angel of the Mining Camp" and Arizona's oldest club for women, Nellie Cashman's Monday Club Café offers casual dining for breakfast, lunch and dinner. With an emphasis on locally-grown produce and indigenous recipes, Chef Jason Christie's menu carries a Southwestern-Mediterranean flair. An open kitchen style allows guests to have an up-close look at many of the items being prepared. Floor- to-ceiling windows allow guests to enjoy the surrounding natural beauty of the state. Patio dining brings sweeping views of the golf course and McDowell Mountains.

Unwind Hour at Resort's Signature Restaurant, deseo
Unwind Hour at deseo is an evening ritual that helps guests and locals alike make the transition from their daytime state of mind into a new, refreshed mood for their nighttime activities. Resident Artist Nelson Garcia brings a whimsical display of expression to the canvas as he paints in deseo's lounge Tuesday through Saturday during Unwind Hour. Unwind Hour is offered daily in the deseo lounge from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m.

The Muddle Bar at deseo

The innovation of deseo's passionate and lively dining experience continues at the Muddle Bar in the deseo lounge, where exotic cocktails are created by smashing together the freshest of fruits and herbs by using a wooden mallet called a "muddle" to release their intense flavors. Choose from the Muddle Bar's selection of fresh fruits (mango, pineapple, raspberries, strawberries, blueberries and more), herbs (basil, tarragon, mint and more) along with your favorite spirit. Create your own unique beverage experience or, choose from one of their custom creations. New for the summer is a refreshing Melon Muddler.

Resort Shows Associate's Artwork at Signature Restaurant, deseo

The Westin Kierland Resort & Spa's signature restaurant, deseo, has transformed into an art gallery, showcasing the work of Cuban artist and Resident Artist, Nelson Garcia-Miranda. Garcia, who worked as a steward at the Resort, came to Phoenix in 1999 after seeking political exile from Cuba. His paintings are a depiction of life as he remembers it in his homeland. They are saturated with the exuberance of the tropics as they embody the tales of the Cuban countryside, bringing to visual representation fables and stories of cagüeiros (sorcerers who become animals), and güijes (Cuban goblins). Garcia's work perfectly compliments the décor of deseo, which is a celebration of Nuevo Latino cuisine and culture.

FUN

Chief FUN Officer and FUN Team

The Westin Kierland Resort is taking the family experience to the next level with their Chief FUN Officer and FUN Team. The Chief FUN Officer is responsible for creating and implementing activities and programs that appeal to both parents and their children alike. Such programs include Kierland Kampfires, visits from the Phoenix zoos, and Arizona-themed events plus so much more. Look out for the FUN team poolside and throughout the Resort as they host the many family FUN activities the Resort has to offer!
